Gilbert Steiner misses one day in more than 34 years

Gilbert Steiner Jr. of Gautier had perfect attendance for 34½ years at International Paper's Moss Point mill — almost!

"I did miss one day during the first month I worked there. It may have been during the first week, I can't remember which and record-keeping was not then what it is nowadays," he said.

"I missed that day for a dumb reason. I got sick from eating a hot oyster I picked up on the Pascagoula beach. I knew you weren't supposed to do that. I knew better."

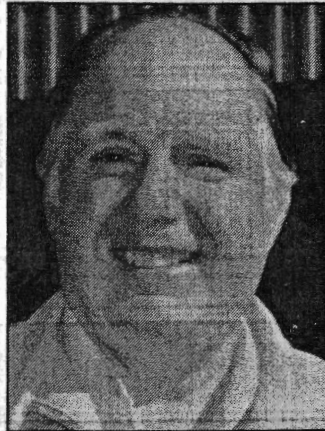

Steiner did work his entire 34.5-year career accident-free, though. He says his safety record is the thing that gives him the most pride.

"I give the Lord credit for not getting sick," he said. "But, the company gets the credit for safety. They do a good job out there."

He went through all the hurricanes, including Elena, Frederic and Camille. "Camille blew my entire house completely away," he said.

The Mobile native retired April 1, 1993, hiring on Sept. 16, 1958, as an associate engineer. His last job was as a chemical analyst in the mill's day laboratory.

He attended Theodore School and Murphy High School in Mobile County, received a bachelor of science degree in chemistry from Auburn University in 1948, and earned a master's degree, also in chemistry, from Georgia Tech in 1957.

Steiner and his wife of 42 years, Augusta Bartran, have one son and four grandchildren. They are active in Coast Covenant Church of Ocean Springs.

His retirement plans include fishing, boating and travel with his wife, as well as visiting grandchildren and friends. He also plans to do volunteer work such as tutoring young people in science.

Eagle Scout Lee Steiner said the rows of shrubs and flowering plants he planted and continues to tend are doing well. The project to beautify the grounds of the Fort Morgan Volunteer Fire Department station earned the youth his coveted Eagle Scout rank in the Boy Scouts of America.

Steiner recently received the award at a ceremony in Gulf Shores.

The Callaway Family In The 1920s

Grandma Mabel Steiner Callaway on left. The little boy beside her is Island Chronicle columnist, Joy Callaway Buskens' dad, Bunny Callaway, his sisters Eleanor, Leola, Little Grannie Callaway, her son, Calvin and husband Clem Callaway. Parts of their home in the Lagoon Community, which now belongs to Larry Gandy, are still standing. The Callaway's first house on the lagoon washed away in the 1906 hurricane, then they built on a high ridge of land now known as the Lagoon Community.
